

Completer effectiveness data are provided by the Indiana Department of Education annually. The 2023-2024 data are not yet available. The IDOE typically provides these data to EPPs mid-fall (late September). Once the EPP receives these data, the website will be updated.