WHAT IS AN INDIANA STATE PREFERRED PARTNER?

Indiana State University's Preferred Partners program is a collaboration with you and your employer to make the benefits of continuing or advanced education more affordable, accessible, and convenient.

Whether you need to complete your bachelor's degree, earn an advanced degree, or complete a credential, the Preferred Partners program can help you take advantage of Indiana State's world-class academic programs and resources. This educational opportunity can assist you with earning a promotion, furthering your career, or even beginning a new one!

Preferred Partners of Indiana State University include school districts, law firms, police departments, insurance agencies, transportation organizations, energy companies, and more. Partner organizations and their employees both benefit from the advanced knowledge, skills, and credentials that our degree programs provide.
